Report Section 1: Pace Analysis

True Front Runners

Freaks Go (Post 3): ELITE early speed; won her maiden at Churchill on 10/26/2025 wire to wire, and stalked third before finishing 2nd at Keeneland on 10/8.

No Time Left (Post 7): ELITE early speed; won her maiden at Churchill on 11/29/2025 on the lead from the rail. Can rate or press. Blinkers added today.

Stalkers / Pressers

Transatlantic (Post 1) moves up at the second call and was 2nd at Churchill on 9/25. Lel Ditty (Post 4) rated off the pace to win a maiden race at Prairie Meadows on 8/23. Stephens Dream (Post 2) pressed early at Indiana Grand on 9/16.

Closers

In for a Spin (Post 8) drove clear in the stretch to win a 7f maiden claimer at Churchill on 6/14. Scythia (Post 5) and Tearin'up My Heart (Post 6) have faded in recent sprints.

Pace Scenario Projection

MODEL PREDICTS: HOT early pace—projected :22 2/5 opening quarter, :45 1/5 half-mile. Freaks Go and No Time Left contest the lead. The duel stresses both, but the model expects No Time Left's ELITE late speed to prevail; stalkers and closers get a fair setup.

Report Section 3: Contender Analysis

Tier 1 — Primary Contenders (★★★★)

Freaks Go (Post 3) — Model Win %: 24%

PTW Profile: The model's highest win probability. Trainer Crichton 17% in claiming sprints. 1-for-9: won a maiden special wire to wire at Churchill (10/26/2025), then winless in seven starts since, including 2nds at Churchill on 4/28 and 9/10 and in a Keeneland starter race on 10/8. As the 6-5 favorite (45.5% implied) she is the race's biggest underlay (–21.5%).

Strengths: ELITE early speed; consistent; Churchill experience.

Concerns: Runner-up in three of her last four; STRONG, not ELITE, late speed; must duel with No Time Left in a HOT pace.

Trip Projection: Presses or leads by the second call; the duel with No Time Left decides the race.

No Time Left (Post 7) — Model Win %: 23%

PTW Profile: Trainer Shaffer (11% first time off a claim, 2.48 ROI). One win from 11 starts—a wire-to-wire maiden win at Churchill on 11/29/2025—plus a 2nd in a Churchill claimer on 11/1/2025. Blinkers added. At 8-1 (11.1% implied), +11.9%—the best overlay in the race.

Strengths: ELITE in both speed categories—the field's best sustained finisher; two recent works including a gate work.

Concerns: One win in 11 starts; winless in four claiming starts this year; faded to 6th, beaten 15 3/4 lengths, on 4/28.

Trip Projection: Breaks sharply with blinkers on, contests the pace with Freaks Go or sits just off it, and outlasts her late.

Tier 2 — Secondary Contenders (★★★)

In for a Spin (Post 8) — Model Win %: 17%

PTW Profile: Trainer Caio Caramori (16% in claiming sprints). Won a 7f maiden claimer at Churchill on 6/14 with a strong stretch drive; 7th, eased, in a 7f starter race on 9/18. Sharp 4f work on 10/29. At 10-1 (9.1% implied), +7.9%.

Strengths: STRONG late speed; the HOT pace should set up her rally.

Concerns: Eased last out; cutting back to 6f.

Trip Projection: Rates 3-4 lengths off the pace inside and needs room for a late run.

Transatlantic (Post 1) — Model Win %: 17%

PTW Profile: Steve Asmussen trainee (14% in claimers); Keith Asmussen rides. Five starts, still a maiden, with a 2nd at Churchill on 9/25 her only in-the-money finish; dueled and faded to 3rd in a muddy 8f claimer at Ellis Park on 8/17. Underlay at 7-2 (22.2% implied, –5.2%).

Concerns: VULNERABLE late; tends to fade after pressing.

Trip Projection: Presses just behind the leaders; expected to fade in the final furlong.

Tier 3 — Pace Factors / Longshots (★★)

Tearin'up My Heart (Post 6, 7%): Genaro Garcia (17% in claimers); 3rd at Indiana Grand on 9/16 and 5th there on 10/7, fading both times. VULNERABLE late. –7.3%.

Scythia (Post 5, 6%): Barry King (2% in claiming sprints); won a 7f maiden claimer at Churchill on 5/16/2025, but beaten 31 3/4 lengths at Keeneland on 10/8. VULNERABLE late. –10.7%.

Stephens Dream (Post 2, 4%): Shaffer barn; 5th in an Indiana Grand allowance on 9/16 after pressing. VULNERABLE late. –2.3%.

Lel Ditty (Post 4, 2%): Jennifer Tooley; won a maiden race at Prairie Meadows on 8/23 after a 2nd on 7/19; 5th, eased, in a Prairie Meadows stakes on 9/26. First-time Lasix; sharp works. –1.2%.
